

The Archaeological Society of Ohio
presents

Prehistoric Cultures II

May 18-20, 2012

Columbus Airport Marriott – Columbus, Ohio

Our Keynote speaker will be Dr. Timothy Pauketat who will be presenting his latest research on the Mississippian metropolis, Cahokia, in a paper entitled, America's Lost City and Its Religion: Cahokia and Its Connection to Ohio. Dr. Pauketat will be speaking at the conclusion of the banquet dinner. Our other speakers will be presenting their latest research and covering virtually all periods of prehistory, including Adena, Glacial Kame, Archaic, Paleo and Hopewell. A full listing of speakers can be found on the ASO website.

We will have a large display room; if you are interested in securing a table, please contact Michael Van Steen at the number listed in the application. There will be no buying or selling of artifacts permitted during the symposium.

A block of rooms, at a discounted rate of $99.00/night have been reserved with the host hotel for this event; please contact the hotel directly (800-228-9290) to reserve a room and mention the symposium to receive this rate. Additional, updated information on the symposium can be found at www.OhioArch.org.
